- b. Road Commissioner Report

Ray Nugent reported he talked with community member Jim Foster regarding Quigley road. Ray stated he told Mr. Foster that Community member Brenda Reed complained there were pot holes in Quigley road, so Ray graded and put gravel down, there are no ditches on this road. After doing so, Brenda Reed paved an area of her driveway and water has started to collect there and runs off the paved area. Ray also reported he is working on 2 miles of pipeline damage on 120th and Eagle Lake Road. He is having an issue with keeping barricades and warning signs there. They have gone thru about 20 or so with a cost of $10-$30 each. Lastly, Ray reported the trucks are getting older and are requiring more maintenance and repair.
